

WEDNESDAYS IN LENT: SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

Sign up! Soup's on at 6:30 p.m. Program starts at 7 p.m.

Join us Wednesdays evenings to consider how God might be calling us. We'll look at the meaning, the Biblical perspective, the history, the role of prayer, and personal relationships in evangelism. This year, our special guest speaker will be the Very Rev. Don Compier, Ph.D., dean of the Bishop Kemper School for Ministry.

Parish Gift to Bishop Cathleen

This spring, Bishop Cathleen will “walkabout” the Northeast Convocation, getting to know each church. When she visits, sometime between May 14 and 24, St. Luke's will welcome her with this marvelous 15 x 20” Kansas-themed mosaic by our own Candi Phillips.

Help fund the purchase price of $375. Please designate your contribution as “Bishop gift” to keep it separate from your other giving.

DINNER CLUB ON 4TH MONDAY

Becky Stanley is hosting dinner club at 6:30 p.m. on March 25 — the fourth Monday of the month — at Old Shawnee Pizza (60th & Nieman). Please sign up on the bulletin board so Becky can notify the restaurant how many to expect.

JACOB'S MUSIC NOTES

This Sunday features our fantastic choir with a spectacular anthem titled, "Without His Cross." The beautiful melody lines carry the text, "without his cross there is no comfort. Without his death there is no life. Without his blood there is no pardon. Without his cross there is no crown." This anthem pairs with the prelude and postlude which are both German baroque pieces based on hymns. The first is "Jesus Christus unser Heiland" (Jesus Christ, our Savior) by Nikolaus Hasse, and is based on the suffering and resurrection of Christ. The latter is "Magnificat II Toni" by Matthias Weckmann.
